"The Girl of the Golden West," in English. Mr. Savage considers that this remarkable young artist is his prize find. Signor Calleya has youth, good looks and a physique of heroic proportions. He speaks English perfectly and is winning laurels this season in grand opera in Italy. The engagement of Calleya completes the trio of artists for the tenor role of Johnson. The other two alternates, whose engagements have already been announced, are Leon de Souza and Umberto Saccetti.

Wright Lorimer, the hero of "The Shepherd King"—the play and actor being the same that were seen at a local theatre a year ago—is suing Wm. A. Brady, the theatrical manager, for $148,400, claiming that Mr. Brady had agreed to give him $50.00 a week salary for his acting and an additional $50.00 a week for training the people in the company playing "The Shepherd King," and because among various other things the manager of an opera house in Syracuse, New York, last March refused to permit the curtain to be raised, informing the audience that Mr. Lorimer was ill and intimating that he was drunk. Mr. Lorimer also claims that Mr. Brady was to maintain a first-class cast and to present "The Shepherd King" in first-class theatres only.

Those who were unfortunate enough to see Lorimer on his visit here will be able to appreciate Mr. Brady's difficulty in maintaining a first-class cast as long as Lorimer was a member of it, and it is equally simple to understand why the show was not given in first-class theatres only, particularly after the reception play and player received in the few first-class houses the attraction broke into in the West.

A MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

An undertaker in Flushing was unable to procure a clergyman to perform the funeral ceremony. They were all away on vacations.—News Item.

"Where is the pastor of our flock?"

The Congregation cried;

It is eleven of the clock,

That fact can't be denied.

The Sexton answered thus: "Methinks

At golf upon the Ardsley links."

"I've flew the coop with this here peach,"

In dulcet tones so said

A youth, who met her on the beach.

Impatient to be wed.

The raven sexton coldly speaks:

"The priest's in Europe for six weeks."

"My baby's going," frantic cries

A mother, all distressed;

"It must be christened ere it dies,

Or be by hell possessed."

The man of omen dourly smiles:

"Then hie ye to the Thousand Isles."

"The Bishop sure would condescend,"

A weeping widow pleads,

"To soothe my dying husband's end,

And tender to his needs."

But they are occupied, of course,

Discussing nothing but divorce.
